Highlights of the 89th Annual
N.S.A.C. Convention

"Satellite Seances Prepares for Lift Off"

"To me, personally, it will be a unifying work, a method to reach all Spiritualist organizations and bring them into a working relationship with the National Spiritualist Association of Churches".

Rev. Joseph H. Merrill, President

The N.S.A.C. Board met during the week preceding the 89th annual Convention, beginning Monday evening, September 28, 1981 at the Cosmopolitan Hotel, Denver, Colorado.

The vacancy created by the passing of Rev. D. Mona Berry was noted. Her presence was very much missed as board members recalled her cheerfulness, sincerity, and the many years of her dedicated service to the cause of Spiritualism.

Rev. Joseph H. Merrill, President, greeted the N.S.A.C. Board Members and they began work.

Tuesday, September 29th, found the Stow Foundation Board in session, followed by business activities of the Benevolent Society.

Mr. David Smalling, Office Manager at N.S.A.C. Headquarters was also appointed secretary pro tem until the convention delegates elected a new secretary.

General business activities concerning the various churches and the members of those churches, continued through long work days beginning at 9:00 a.m. and lasting until 9:00 p.m. or later.

An announcement by President Merrill created an air of wonderment and anticipation, when he stated that a gentleman from Los Angeles (not affiliated with N.S.A.C.) had telephoned requesting permission to meet with the board. He did not explain the reason for the request, but suggested that he had an idea that might interest the board. Thus an appointment was made.

Thursday, October 1, at 1:30 p.m., President Merrill introduced Mr. Bob Kiger, the president of The Videography Company located in Los Angeles, California. Mr. Kiger briefly related the nature of his business. He explained that in the beginning of his career, he had specialized in photography, but had now moved into the field of television and telecasting. Twelve years ago he had produced a film at the Lily Dale Camp in New York entitled "There Is No Death - There Are No Dead". At the time he was a student at the Rochester Institute of Technology and was working on his thesis. It was a good film, presenting Spiritualism factually and with dignity. A copy of this film is on file in the Library of Congress. Some of the persons featured in the film, several of whom have now passed to spirit, included Rev. Robert J. Macdonald, then N.S.A.C. President, Herb Siler, Harre Milesi, Billy Hammond, the dean of Spiritualism, and Dr. Pierot Austin.

Although not a Spiritualist, but deeply interested in the role of Spiritualism in the present-day world, an idea had occurred and recurred with a persistence that had prompted him to request permission to present his plan to the board.

In a brief introduction, Mr. Kiger stated that there are millions of non-Spiritualists who attend seances, message services and healings annually, which emphasizes the fact that Spiritualism attracts the interest of numerous people on a deeply personal level. Because of this deep and widespread interest, there has long been a need for a responsible forum for psychic and occult phenomena in the mass media.

The proposed answer to this need carried an electrifying effect upon board members. The plan, if accepted, would feature an actual Spiritualist seance to be telecast weekly across the Western Hemisphere. The program with a working title of Satellite Seances would be produced in cooperation with the National Spiritualist Association of Churches by the Videography Company.

Was the board interested? If so, a preliminary agreement must be reached. Mr. Kiger was on his way to the first annual convention of Cable Television Networks, which was being held in New Orleans. He would present his proposal for the production of "Satellite Seances" and attempt to secure a "Distributor", for upon this would hinge the program's future and the opportunity to become a reality.

In a flurry of excited activity, attorneys were called, proposals drawn and a letter of intent made by N.S.A.C. and The Videography Company. Schedules were running very close as Bob Kiger boarded his plane on the 10:30 a.m. flight Thursday, en route to the New Orleans convention.

The board then returned to "business as usual" and to wait further response from Mr. Kiger. This was not long in coming, more telephone calls, more correspondence, and delivery of material to New Orleans by airline counter-to-counter, the fastest possible delivery.

Sunday morning, October 4, a pre-convention service was held at The Temple of Harmony Church in Denver. Rev. William F. Melick spoke at this service. Messages were given by members of the church, assisted by Rev. Evelyn Muse. A friendship hour was followed by the evening service which was conducted by members of the National Board; Paul Spencer spoke.

Monday, October 5, at 7:00 p.m. the well attended banquet for officers and delegates was held in The Silver Glade Room of the Cosmopolitan Hotel. The ladies of the Temple of Harmony Church provided beautiful decorations for the banquet tables. Delegates were treated to lively and colorful entertainment, including singing and dancing numbers, by students from a local high school.

Indeed we thank the Centennial State Association and The Temple of Harmony Church members for their very great hospitality and for the many things they did for everyone.

Tuesday, October 6, the morning session began at 10:00 with the Call to Order by President, Rev. Joseph H. Merrill.

During the period "Speak Out", more than twenty people spoke out, presenting many constructive thoughts which proved very interesting. One delegate reminded everyone that problems should be worked out with the knowledge that we are Spiritualists, that we should try to do what is best for Spiritualism and not simply try to inflate one's own ego.

Under the subject of ordination, one of the delegates brought out that persons seeking ordination should be sure of their motivation, that it, too, is not just an ego pursuit.

The 1:30 p.m. session began with the appointment of other committees, followed by the report of the Rules Committee.

President Merrill in the opening remarks, of his annual message, reminded us of the desires of the pioneers of our movement for unity and harmony of all who are interested in furthering Spiritualism, and questioned whether or not we are progressing or stagnating. He observed that as a religion we should be teaching also about the various aspects of parapsychology, and claim as our own those things that are the Spiritualist heritage.

He expressed his views on the lack of teaching the true philosophy of Modern Spiritualism, adding that education is the key to our progression, and emphasizing that our organization must put forth extra effort in the next few years to build a strong educational program that will educate all.

The Report of Bureau of Education - Morris Pratt Institute announced the introduction of new educational courses, which they will begin using April 1, 1982.

Wednesday October 7, proved to be a red-letter day.

Naturally, various committee activities and reports were presented according to the convention program.

Prior to the noon recess, President Merrill told delegates a special announcement would be forthcoming promptly at the opening of the 1:30 p.m. afternoon session.

The count down seemed to begin.

At 11:15 a.m. Bob Kiger arrived in Denver on his return flight where he was met by Mr. Melick, who whisked him in record time to the Cosmopolitan Hotel. He was promptly escorted to the Board Meeting Room where a brief discussion followed with N.S.A.C. Board members including Mr. E. Fritz, N.S.A.C. attorney. The noon recess passed and the Board Members continued without lunch.

1. BE IT RESOLVED: That the Board of Trustees of The National Spiritualist Association of Churches of America be authorized to enter into a formal acquisition of rights agreement with the Videography Company of Los Angeles, California, in such form and on such terms as it, in its discretion, deems most beneficial and advantageous relative to the proposed program called "Satellite Seances."
2. BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the Board of Directors be authorized to take necessary financial and legal steps to implement the satellite seances program.

THEREFORE, be it resolved that the National Board has cast its approval, this Committee as second party casts its approval.

Promptly at 1:30 p.m. President Merrill introduced Bob Kiger to the delegates.

Mr. Kiger had the undivided attention of the delegates as he spoke briefly of his background in the field of photography, the film which he had made at Lily Dale Camp, how this had helped him obtain a job at Universal Studios, and later how he had moved into the field of videotape, having founded his own company in 1972.

He related his telephone call to President Merrill, his subsequent meeting with the N.S.A.C. Board, the tentative agreement reached, and his successful trip to the Convention in New Orleans.

"The reaction was overwhelming - positive. People are interested in what you're doing. They're very interested in what you're doing. They're very interested in this idea.

I ask you to open your minds and your hearts for a second to this new idea.

What is this idea?

The idea is controversial, big, - it's influential in its power - a one hour weekly program, "Satellite Seances".

I would ask you to hear it out and we will react together.

The Board felt with me, that as a working title, nothing better represented the total picture of what we're going to present to the American people then the words "Satellite Seances".

This is the first time that I know of in history that an entire church association will be coming together, as a whole, to bring their force in power into focus on one activity...

I do believe that you have an opportunity to let the world see in an impartial way what you're made of. Without any theorizing about it, without trying to prove it to them, by simply showing it, I think you will find that you will be very successful.

I had to find somebody who would be willing and courageous enough to produce such a program. The Board and I went over this concept of entertainment. Entertainment is what attracts viewers, is what builds converts, and does what you have to have done. You must entertain.

This does not mean that you become a mockery, but means that you use the best qualities that you have in front of you and that you present them honestly. I do not believe that you have to be afraid in any way. I found on my first day there that I had five serious distribution offers. I had five distributors standing around.

I am not a Spiritualist; I am a man who is in the business of becoming a professional communicator. I intend to make this a great show, not a good show, a great show. I don't intend to be second to anybody. I intend for this show to be the best on the air.

Learn to relate to this as Spiritualists. Videography has gone as far as it can go right now. It is now up to you, to get behind one another and to unify with each other and with other Spiritualist groups in getting the funding together to do this. You're going to have to stop being factional and you're going to have to unify. It's extremely important, because this is bigger than anybody in this room. It's bigger than anything that has gone on for the last one hundred years, and it is the second hundred years of Spiritualism that needs unification.

We will need to organize campaigns at individual church levels. An anticipated $100,000.00 funding will provide the structural foundation for the project. All funds are being handled through N.S.A.C.

The target date for the first telecast is July 1, 1982.

"Don't let any grass grow under your feet!"

Following Bob Kiger's presentation, a number of delegates voiced their opinions regarding Satellite Seances. The majority of these expressed elation for the opportunity to present to the world the truths which have struggled so long for expression. Questions were directed concerning definitions and interpretations of words such as mediumship, seance, and proof of the continuity of life.

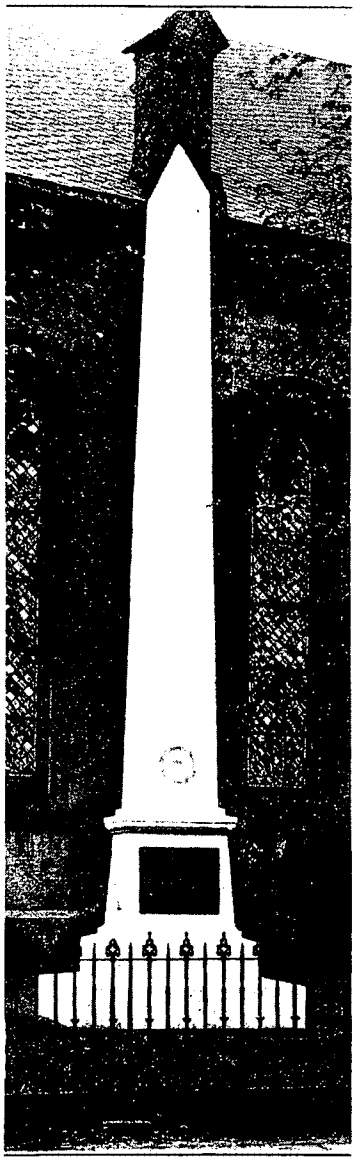

The word mediumship is defined in the broad sense to include both mental and physical mediumship, also healing.

The word seance is also defined in its broad meaning. Webster defines seance: a session, as of some public body; among Spiritualists, a sitting with the view of evoking spiritual manifestations. There is no mention of "dark room" in the definition of seance. The point was made by one of the delegates that the general public usually thinks of seances as they have so often been erroneously presented in terms of the Hollywood stereotyping.

President Merrill highlighted the discussion with these words:

"To me, personally, it will be a unifying work, a method to reach all Spiritualist organizations and bring them into a working relationship with the National Spiritualist Association of Churches".

Thursday afternoon, October 8, three bus loads of delegates enjoyed an outstanding tour. "Our" driver was well versed and, "constantly iterated about the points of interest", remarked several members on the trip through the mountains. Our very special thanks again to The Centennial State Association for all the courtesies extended to us, and for the delicious box lunch furnished the delegates who went on the tour.

"The International Shrine of Spiritualism", a majestic 25 foot Obelisk now stands in the Spiritualist Memorial Park, Rochester, New York.

Committee reports and additional comments by delegates continued Friday morning.

The 2:00 p.m. roll call established one hundred and twenty four delegates. Agnes Nichols was elected by a majority vote to fill the one year unexpired term of secretary. Helen Hanson's name was placed in nomination also.

There were seven nominations for the one year office of trustee. On the second ballot between three remaining candidates (four withdrew from nomination), Ronald R. Skowronski was elected by a majority ballot.

Ralph Cutlip, treasurer; Evelyn Muse, trustee; and William F. Melick, trustee, were unaminously re-elected for three year terms.

Thus the 89th Annual N.S.A.C. Convention, instead of coming to a close, became rather a historically memorable occasion for launching a monumental undertaking which will effect the future of Spiritualists everywhere, and the cause of Spiritualism in a way comparable only to the revelation at Hydesville in 1848.

This beautiful obelisk was originally dedicated December 4, 1927 by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle on the grounds of the Plymouth Church at Rochester, N.Y. Due to construction of a highway which made necessary the re-location of the Plymouth Church, the obelisk was removed to nearby Spiritualist Memorial Park, its present sanctuary, where dedication ceremonies were held October 5, 1978. It stands today a lasting majestic granite monument rising twenty-five feet in height, reminding those who pass by, of the historic day which heralded the Advent of Modern Spiritualism.

" Satellite Seances " - Responses

Many delegates to the 89th Convention responded to "Satellite Seances" innovation. TNS decided to share some of their enthusiasm with our reading public.

When I first heard Bob Kiger's presentation, I almost couldn't believe my own ears. I got so excited that I even remember shedding a tear or two of joy. I remember thinking about our pioneers and how they must have felt breaking new ground for Spiritualism, and here we are in the same position more than a century later.

I have my fears and anxieties over this venture, but I remember to "Under all circumstances, keep an even mind." If we allow fear to grip our progress, we will be denying all that our principles and pioneers stand for. We have here an opportunity to blaze new trails for our religion and write a grand new chapter in human history. We will offer the message of proof to millions that "there is no death, there are no dead", and in so doing, Spiritualism will truly prove itself to be " the Light of the World".

Ronald R. Skowronski

I feel wonderful about the future prospects, now that the National Spiritualist Association of Churches is getting involved in wide range public relations. I have heard so much negativity in the past about the twisting of truths and etc, when the news media became involved, that I was wondering what was wrong with our positive teachings. If we put out our truths and teachings in a dignified and sincere manner, it must be to our advantage.

Many of our pioneers put their lives and jobs on the line to stand by the truths of Spiritualism. Our spirit friends went out of their way to bring phenomena to the masses. Now we have our chance to do so and clarify what Spiritualism is, compared to spiritism, and to show the spirituality in Spiritualism along with the phenomena.

Let us all emphasize our National Spiritualist Association of Churches, so that all people recognize it when it is mentioned.

I am eagerly looking forward to the start of this new venture.

At last something is being done to wake up the physical minds of the Spiritual Plane of existance. The spirit world is using Doctors now because Mediums seem to be going by the wayside. I believe if we can let people know we are around, it will help greatly.

Bryan McCotter
LeRoy, Illinois

As a delegate to the recent 89th Convention of the N.S.A.C., it was my privilege and pleasure to be one of the founding patrons with a contribution to the special fund for the purpose of promoting Satellite Seances.

In my opinion, this arrangement between the N.S.A.C. Board and Mr. Kiger to produce these seances was not only the highlight of this convention, but the greatest step forward in many years to put Spiritualism in its proper place before the world. It is well known to all of us that the media of television is a powerful, effective influence in these modern times and our science, philosophy and religion will now be given its long awaited opportunity to unite all mankind in harmony, and convince the skeptic of the immortality of the soul.

I urge all Spiritualists everywhere to constitute themselves a committee of one to spread the good news of these Seances, to cooperate with our N.S.A.C. Board, and to encourage others to contribute to this special fund, so the target date of July, 1982, will find us ready spiritually and financially to embark on this significant and exciting project.

Spiritually yours,
Clyde A. Dibble
Burlingame, California

"SATELLITE SEANCES" - a long awaited project! Such a venture discussed by the N.S.A.C. Board in the past was felt to be impossible until now.

Bob Kiger, when a student at Rochester Institute of Technology, Rochester, N.Y., made a documentary film at Lily Dale which was a very creditable film and has moved ahead in the film making world to become President of Videography Company of Los Angeles. Mr. Kiger has made possible what a few years ago seemed impossible.

Whether this monumental task will be successful or not depends on YOU, regardless of Spiritualist affiliation, for individuals will be drawn from ALL Spiritualist organizations and who will be representative of the scientific, philosophical and religious aspects of Spiritualism, even moving into the international field.

To "get the show on the road" depends on Founding Patrons and Patrons, Founding Patrons being those who contribute $100 or more.

For those who feel that the "entertainment" part of a film production will depreciate the seriousness of Spiritualism we can only reiterate that the N.S.A.C. Board will have supervision of the material used while Videography will have control of the casting of individuals taken from a pool of individuals submitted by N.S.A.C.

An important thought for ALL N.S.A.C. churches is the fact that sweeping changes may be necessary in the character of some of the National auxiliaries and the type of service that is representative of Spiritualism and National standards.

Joseph H. Merrill, President

For a long time we have been wringing our hands at every disgraceful, degrading portrayal of Spiritualism on television, and being abjectly grateful for any less than insulting publicity we have garnered.

Now the chalice has been passed to us. Now, through "Satellite Seances", we have a chance to overturn all the horrible insults and degrading performances which have characterized the media portrayal of Spiritualism in the past.

But it is only a chance. Unless we, here and now, accept this challenge and act on it forcefully and immediately, we will likely be forever relegated to a second class, poverty stricken, single paragraph entry in the "World Book of Religions".

The path is not short, the way is not easy, the rocks and stumbling blocks abound. But if we apply our determination, our faith and all of our strength to this project, in accordance with Natural Law, nothing can stop us; if we do not, nothing can save us. As we approach the turn of the century, economics alone demands that we take this step.

Every Spiritualist in the world must join in the effort. The young, with their indefatigable strength and optimism must meet this challenge. The middle aged, with their experience and talent, must all join together in harmony and purpose, to bring to the world a dignified, entertaining and far reaching program that will educate humanity to the beauty and truths of Spiritualism.

Paul F. Spencer
Delevan, New York

The 89th Annual Convention of the N.S.A.C. brought great pleasure to me and the others who came from the State of Washington. It was as though we were in on the starting of something new and wonderful. Bob Kiger's presentation of "Satellite Seances" brought tears of joy to my eyes. The need for this form of communication has been a long time coming. At this time, the need is great to dispel all the many myths about Spiritualism. Most of today's press and media coverage is all on the occult, not the religious aspects of Spiritualism. It is for this reason I am putting a great effort in telling everyone I contact about this beautiful series of programs. Mr. Melick, my prayers are with this wonderful project and its success. Let us hope this will touch many hearts and bring into realization a much needed form of communication. As the old saying goes, "When you pray for potatoes grab a hoe." Let us all grab our hoes and plant these much needed seeds.

Julie Foster
Tacoma, Washington

Mr. Howard W. Renollet suggested a $100,000 Club of a hundred $1,000 memberships, for initial funding of Satellite Seances. He presented the first $1,000 on behalf of the Renollet family, who have long pioneered in the founding and promotion of various invaluable accomplishments for the cause of Spiritualism.

The following are summarized points of concern.

The need to prepare and upgrade our churches to be better churches. The need to properly educate ministers - both lay and ordained.

Error Sources In Spirit Communications

by Steven W. Ross

Communications with spirit are of great importance in the science, philosophy and religion that represents Modern Spiritualism. Generally speaking, there are two primary types of messages that our mediums give: evidential messages and predictive messages (I will ignore the greetings - from - aunt - Mary types). Evidential messages are important because they prove the "Continuity of Life" concept; and this is the primary purpose of our message service. For instance, a medium once told me that, that very morning I had debated if I would wear a white or a blue shirt. I was so startled by that statement, it took me seconds to recover. Yet, it was perfectly correct. Not even my wife knew about my thoughts, and there simply was no way that the medium could have obtained this information except through spirit. So, while the information content has no intrinsic value, the fact that it was available, proves our contention that there are entities who watch us who can read our minds and who can pass this information on to a medium.

Once the evidential message has established confidence in the sitter, predictive messages can be given. You are well familiar with the type which could tell of a trip, a letter, a promotion or a new job, and so on and so forth. The question then arises, how valid are such predictions? If they are valid at all, can they have errors; if so, what is the cause of such errors? Obviously, this is a large subject. Entire books have been written, attempting to evaluate this problem. Unfortunately, I have noted that most of these books merely contain a collection of incidences where predictions have been made and the success or failure of these claims was noted. Depending on the author and his purpose and beliefs, one could find any types of results which reminds me somewhat on stockmarket advisers. I know exactly what advice I will receive depending on which service I ask. Unfortunately, getting back to those books on prophesies and predictions, none of the authors have attempted any critical or analytical analysis to evaluate the error sources and probabilities.

I have identified six potential error sources in predictions, which I will discuss briefly to provide you with a better understanding of the problem.

(1) Obscuration of Vision of Seer

Obscuration of vision is a problem for both human and spirit predictors. In the physical world, if you stand on a vantage point, usually elevated, you can see farther than otherwise. Spirit, who operates at elevated vibration levels, can see farther than humans because certain physical obstructions are transparent to spirit. But here again, the degree of tranparency depends on the level of vibration, and some spirits are not as advanced as others. These entities vibrate at a lower rate and cannot see as far as very advanced entities. But we should realize that only Infinite Intelligence is all-knowing and all-seeing; all others have limitations. Thus these limitations can cause errors in predictions.

(2) Misinterpretation of Symbolism

Most information is given to mediums in the form of symbolism. This has to be interpreted by the medium. This is a great source of error, since many mediums are insufficiently skilled in this interpretation. Unfortunately, the teacher cannot provide simple and fixed rules as in mathematics. Interpretation is an art, not a science. It has to be worked out between the communicating spirit guide and the medium, because the same symbol means different things to different spirit/medium teams. Effort must be spent by the team to provide good interpretations, or serious errors will result which are frustrating to all parties involved.

(3) Garbled Spirit Communications

It must be clearly understood that all communication systems be they physical or spiritual, consist of three parts: a transmitter or sender, a receiver and a communication path between the two. In this, we are concerned with the communication path. If you think back 30 or more years and recall the earlier radio, telephone and telegraph communications, then you will remember that message transmission was not as clear and simple as it is usually today in this country. The telephone had a noise problem as well as distortions of voice, hence, sometimes it was very difficult to understand the other party, and misunderstanding occurred. Wireless telegrams often arrived garbled and it was quite difficult to interpret them. Radio was beset with static (atmospheric noises) and fading. Thus part of a program was lost or garbled. Some of you may remember those days; they still exist in less technically advanced countries. This very same problem, perhaps most analogous to the atmospheric disturbances in wireless transmissions (it even happens today in TV at times), exists between spirit and the medium. Spirit must lower its vibration level, and hopefully, the medium can raise his vibration rate a little, so they can reach a mutually acceptable vibration rate on which they can communicate. This is a difficult task for spirit to begin with and it is even more difficult to maintain this rate. Thus there are times when spirit and medium get out of synchronization (for lack of a better word), and that has effects similar to the old atmospheric static and fading. Thus part of the message gets lost or garbled. Since this effect is not always obvious to the communicators, corrections are seldom made. So, here is a serious source of communication errors and one that is not easily overcome. We may just have to live with it. Perhaps in the future we will improve this transmission path problem, just as we did within earthly communications.

(4) No Sense of Time in Spirit World

As most of you know, there is no sense of time in the spirit world, at least not in the earthly sense. As a result, time predictions by spirit is often erroneous, since spirit is no longer used to the time schedules we live by. Hence, anything involving time should be treated with great caution.

(5) A Prediction is a direction, valid only at the time of presentation.

In a prediction - the direction is important, not the end point. It is very important to understand this concept. Let me give you an example. A young man had lost his job and was working hard to find a new one. He wrote applications, went to interviews, contacted agencies and so on. Then, he decided to consult a psychic and he was told that he would get a good job within six weeks. With this assurance the fellow now thought to have himself a good fun vacation since the job would come. Of course, he was not offered any work and he became very annoyed with the erroneous prediction of the psychic. What he did not understand was that the psychic was right. At the time, he was busy looking for a job and it would have come to fruition, but at that point he changed direction, (which was his decision) he stopped looking and thus did not meet his potential employer. It was his change in direction that invalidated the prediction. So, we must understand that any prediction is merely a current direction that may lead to certain events, if the individual keeps going along the way as he did when he was given the prediction. Otherwise, all bets are off.

(6) The future is not predetermined, human free will can change it.

It should be clear that the concept of free will is closely related to the previous discussion. As Spiritualists, we believe in free will; However, there are limitations to this concept. Not everthing can be chosen, there is some overall direction by Infinite Intelligence, but within certain bounds and reasons we do have free choice. And believe you me, we make plenty of use of it, frequently in the wrong direction. Let me give you an example again. A medium foresaw a car accident and told the lady that it might be a good idea if she had her car checked. The advice was heeded, and the mechanic told the lady after the repairs that she was lucky. The brake fluid line had become loose and would have broken shortly. Thus, the accident was avoided. Here again we see a direction, but the final event was not preordained; it could and was changed. Thus, we can say that the future was changed. Many of such occurrences are known and recorded. So, here again is a potential error source. The future can be changed by free will and since many people often are involved in certain events, if just one of them changes his mind, the entire course of events can be changed.

I hope I have given you a better insight into the intricacies of predictions and the error sources that can invalidate predictions of good mediums and honest spirt helpers.

The Progress of Truth

by Herbert F. Schneider

There are many religions in the world and many sub-divisions of most of them. Each advocates limitations upon man, placing its particular restrictions on him and has usually regaled the Divine Creator with the human failings commonly known to themselves. It demeans man, encumbering him with sin and therefore affronts God in whose image man has been created.

Seldom do we hear that man is born free to progress to a higher spiritual consciousness because of his divine origin and destination, without respect to choice, and however long the journey.

If religion is to serve a beneficially useful purpose, it must constantly evolve at a pace in advance of the common man in order to show him the path. This must be the result of a prevailing growth of understanding and not follow the dictates of a religious hierarchy with the dogmas specified by a few individuals.

The evolution of religion may be best accomplished by religious advocates seeking and testing new revelations of truth in wisdom not formerly common knowledge, and which follows the guidelines of nature itself. Nature forever seeks to evolve a newer and better form of life. The entire universe is one of motion and change.

If nature calls for revision, the false principle of arresting the progression of religion to the time of its progenitors is contrary to the entire scheme of natural evolution and lacks any scientific basis whatever. It is consequently destined to oblivion when its day has become sufficiently passed. That which has happened to the dinosaur and other extinct species, can happen to institutions as well.

Theologians pontificate that religion must forever remain the same. It must remain completely unchanged irrespective of an otherwise changing world. They fail to mention that by the light of intellect gained by the masses of humanity, they have from time to time been forced to discard certain superstitions of the ignorant past. However, procrastination has prevailed against an awakening progression.

Science has proven that newer and greater revelations are constantly unveiled to the mind of man, through those who seek the advance of civilization and have prepared themselves for it. Many are aware that in some way it comes from a highter source of intelligence, while others wonder how it happens, because it is an entirely different science than those they know.

The philosophy of, "if the outhouse was good enough for grandpa it is good enough for me," is no longer acceptible even by theologians (who prefer modern plumbing) and yet they insist on applying that philosophy to religion. Surely, the time must be here when people should decide for themselves when they may apply reason to religion and not need to wait for permission or initiative from the theologians who have inhibited the progress of truth.

God did not place a ban on the future revelation of truth, two thousand years ago or at any time. There is more truth known today, in all departments of life than was ever dreamed of before.

The essence of religion is progression. It requires forward movement by the application of, the love of truth and the will to seek it. Find it for yourself. Truth is forever self-rewarding.

Quiz Corner

Does clairaudience catch the actual words spoken by spirits, or are impressions of words subjectively impressed on mediums?

Reply: There are two states, or conditions, of clairaudience, known as objective and subjective. The former is produced by the spirit creating actual vibrations in the atmosphere of the medium, which, striking the ear, produce sound, but of such delicate character that even the most careless listener realizes there is a bit of difference between it and the everyday sound of conversation with a friend.

Then again, sometimes the spirit not being in our immediate atmosphere, but in conscious touch with us - can, by thought projection, effect us so the only way we can express ourselves is "I hear," but it is not as a sound of the usual character, but yet akin to it, so the medium will express it as hearing.

Lyceum Report given at the 89th Convention

Greetings:

Once again it is my pleasure to bring to you the report of the Bureau of Lyceums.

We commend the efforts of those dedicated teachers who give so freely of their time and talent to teach both children and adults in the Lyceums of our churches.

From the annual reports submitted, it is evident that many good things are taking place in our various active Lyceums. The universal comment coming from our largest and most active Lyceums, was the benefits of including among Lyceum activities nature hikes, field trips, parties and social events for these brought about a closer bond among members. Those with classes for all ages from pre-schoolers through adult, stress the benefits derived from providing for the entire family.

This year Beginner's Kits were sent to the following churches:

First Spiritualist Church, Newburyport, Mass.

Flower Memorial Spiritualist Church, Leslie, Michigan.

First Spiritualist Temple, Detroit, Michigan

Spiritualist Society, Los Angeles, California

Second Spiritualist Church, Minneapolis, Minn.

These kits are offered gratis from the Bureau of Lyceums to help new Lyceums get started and it must be understood that all materials sent are the property of the Lyceum and Church for their continued use.

Our newest Lyceum organized this year is that of the Spiritualist Society of Los Angeles with Rachel Isaacs as Conductor.

The first annual report received this year was from the Growing Lights Lyceum of the Spiritualist Church of Revelation of Columbus, OH. Michigan is our State submitting the most reports with ones received from four Lyceums and an excellent report of State Lyceum activities from their State Superintendent, Elaine Kwapich.

In compliance with a recommendation from the committee on the Superintendent's Report at a prior convention, the Growing Lights Lyceum, who submitted the first report and the State of Michigan who submitted the most reports, each receive their choice of $5.00 worth of Lyceum materials.

From our annual reports this year, it was evident that the books and materials being used in our Lyceums, are those recommended by the Bureau of Lyceums and purchased from our N.S.A.C. office. In this way, we know true Spiritualism is being taught in Lyceum classes. Several new lesson series are still in the writing process, by various individuals, and it is hoped these will soon be available for consideration for publication. Your Superintendent has compiled a list of Lyceum literature and supplies with a brief description of each, available to anyone for the asking.

Efforts to establish a God and Country award in conjunction with the Boy Scouts of America, is under way. Rev. Norma McDerment and Rev. Barbara Thurman are serving on a committee with your Superintendent to write a program to be submitted to the Church Commission who handles this. The designing of the badge is a minor detail in comparison to the first and foremost task of developing a quality program. It must be understood that much time and effort will need to go into this.

The Lyceum Spotlight, our monthly magazine, continues to provide lesson material for all ages. Our new editor, Rev. Norma McDerment, brings to it, her untiring efforts on behalf of the Lyceum movement.

The project of the Bureau of Lyceums of selling the Sunflower seals continues. We are pleased to report that over 800 packages have been purchased by 32 churches, camps, and State associations and many individuals. If the approximately 140 remaining churches and camps will join in our efforts, this project can be nothing but an overwhelming success. With over 800 packages of 40 seals each now in circulation, we know that over 32,000 seals with a sunflower and the statement, "Spiritualism Light's the Way," have been seen by many thousand more as they travel through the mail on cards and envelopes. Thank you for your cooperation. The proceeds benefit the bureau of Lyceums.

In an effort to improve communication, your Superintendent has developed a Newsletter to be sent quarterly to all Lyceum teachers, the first

Then - Now

"Spiritualist, the eyes of all Christendom are upon you, do your duty!."

Dr. J. M. Peebles

(see page 169 - The Hundredth Anniversary of Modern Spiritualism)

Statements made by Ann Leah Fox Underhill

(From her book The Missing Link in Modern Spiritualism) Copyright 1885.

Many mistakes and material omissions have been made in former summary accounts from pens of friends, as well as misstatements from those of foes; nor could any one heretofore form any clear or complete idea of the early years of the epochal period which dates from March 31, 1848.

Since that day, starting from a small country village of Western New York, Spiritualism has made its way - against tremendous obstacles, but under an impulse and a guidance from higher spheres - round the civilized globe.

As in the story of the weary forty years' wandering of the children of Israel in the desert - fed by food and led by light from heaven - so does Spiritualism seem to be now nearing the borders of its Promised Land.

I conclude . . by a brief allusion to the reasonable question which has been so often asked, "What is the use of the manifestations of Spiritualism?"

It is that they demonstrate the reality of the survival of man's spirit, or inner self, after that "death" which is but birth into another stage of progressed and progressive life, in unchanged personality and identity; or, in other words, that immortality of the soul (heretofore a mere dogma of unproved and unprovable "faith"), which is the foundation corner-stone of all religions and of all Religion. In the words of Paul, to "faith" they "add knowledge." They thus not only console bereavement, snatch from death its sting, and from the grave its victory, but through concurrent teachings of all good and advanced spirits they make the real reality of the brotherhood of mankind, and the common fatherhood of that supreme, unnamed, and unnamable Infinitude of Love, Wisdom and Power, who is addressed in Pope's universal Prayer, as -

"Father of all, in every age
In every clime adored,
By saint, by savage, and by sage,
Jehovah, Jove, or Lord."

issue of which is ready to go in the mail now.

To have any communication to be effective, it is necessary to send any changes of address or changes of leadership in your Lyceum to the Superintendent.

The highlight of our year is always our Lyceum Conference. This year the 27th annual lyceum conference was held in Lily Dale, New York on July 10 - 12. Many commented that this was our finest conference. The harmony and cooperation which prevailed, was evident to all and a glowing example of true Spiritualism. It was rewarding to know that we could call the fine group of young people who assembled - our Lyceumists.

The Lyceum movement organized by Andrew Jackson Davis, in 1863, goes forward.

How might it grow might well be our question? Currently only 15 - 20 per cent of our churches and camps have an active Lyceum.

As in a previous year, again your Superintendent recommends that every state appoint a State Lyceum Superintendent who will work with the churches of that State in establishing Lyceums. Our goal must continue to be a Lyceum in every church. Ask someone from a church with an active Lyceum how it benefits the church, as well as the individual members. A Lyceum is the educational counterpart of the church. We must recognize the growing need for more and more education for our leaders and our laity. Lyceum may well be the answer, for from an early age through adulthood, it can provide training in the science, philosophy and religion of Spiritualism.

Respectfully submitted,

Spiritual Healing

To The 89th Convention
For The National Healers' League

I come to you with love, bearing tokens of this expression and greeting each and every one of you as an integral part of our Healers' League, for we are (all of us) truly in league to bring a higher spiritual consciousness into the world of today. Although you are not all certified as Healers by the N.S.A.C., we recognize that there are many levels of healing, just as there are many levels of consciousness in our world. Those of us who truly ascribe and are dedicated to the higher philosophy of Spiritualist, recognize that as we hold our everyday consciousness on the highest level that we are able to attain at each given moment of our lives, we are engaged in bringing emotional healing and added light to the lives of many with whom we come in touch.

Today, we all stand at the gateway of a new era in our national consciouness. Perhaps a return to the "old values" of life and a return to independent reasoning and responsibility will once again bear fruit in the realization that each man, woman and child in the universe has unlimited and untapped potentials when we turn anew to spiritual awareness. When folks ask "Where are we going in the future. . . Do you think there will be another Depression. . .?" Let us remember that tried and proven philosophy, "As a man thinketh, so he is." And affirm that we will recognize nothing but spiritual growth, health, happiness and prosperity in our life and the lives of all with whom we come into contact. Two forces, materialism and Spiritualism face each other and the present and next decades will be decisive. Fantastic power in man's hands today and volatile world circumstances make a new unfoldment of spirit essential, a new opportunity for soul growth.

As Spiritualists, we recognize that responsibility is one of the principles of our motivation and our inner strength is the answer. We know that we have power through our minds to work with the subtler influences and through spiritual guidance, use energies of far-reaching import. It means that as we learn to use our minds, instead of allowing others to influence them, we can in a real and definitive way - begin to re-create the environment in which we live and take our places in the vanguard of those laboring to bring in the new age of spirituality.

Much has happened in the realms of spiritual healing, since the first convention of the N.S.A.C. The needs of our fellow human beings have changed as our society, hygiene, nutrition and progress in the arts and sciences of health care have made giant strides during the past 89 years. Where once our spiritual healers may have been called upon for aid in diptheria, smallpox, polio and pneumonia, today we find ourselves ever more on call for disharmony of the mind, stress, anxiety, depression, hatred and guile. All of which, cast their shadows upon the physical body and result in cancerous and other pathological conditions, which are all too often short-circuited by drugs that mask and do not help to heal the contributing factors.

Emotional healing is the greatest need of all mankind today, for without it, there can be no spiritual growth and without spirituality in our world, our world shall continue to dash pell-mell toward self-destruction.

In this year of newly dedicated national commitments to prudent living, cutting of costs and elimination of waste in our economy, let us apply these standards to our everyday spiritual growth. Let us once again learn to live prudently, for as a man thinketh, he becomes. Let us count the costs of wasted energy in dissatisfaction, lethargy, anger, jealousy and hurt feelings and eliminate the negative aspects in our personal lives, looking to the future as a challenge and an opportunity to labor in the vineyard.

The national Healers League boasts an ever-growing roster of N.S.A.C. certified Healers. We work in our churches, our camps, and whenever and wherever we can serve, as channels for that divine energy that knows no limits, no boundaries, and no sects. We support the ways and means, each year, and make other valued contributions as the needs arise.

And so today, as we move into the new year of endeavor, we, the membership and our president, the Rev. Janice R. Baynes, offer an invitation to all certified healers to become a member of our league and join with us as we move forward to achieve our goals of establishing a code of ethics and advancing the understanding of the possibilities and limitations of spiritual healing in this world as well as the next.

So, today I bring to you a quotation "Love is a thing, a great potent thing. Not many are acquainted with it. Some have seen its phylacteries, its robes, its outward adornments. Some have witnessed its movements, have listened to the rustle of its skirts and its robes as it passed. Some have seen its very self in the face of a friend. But, the thing itself has yet to find its revealment. God is, and God is love and we must know love and we must know God.

I brought you flowers, in celebration of the Christ consciousness, the consciousness of love. . . as I pick one out it says to you. . . "Love is the seed, Spiritualism the flower, of eternal life".

This is our way of spreading the seed, broadcast on the wind. If you give $1 apiece for these little pens, we shall give the proceeds as a Christmas remembrance to our own retired mediums who gave selflessly and are now recipients of small tokens of gratitude through the Mediums Retirement Fund.

This then is part of our philosophy of never ending support for those who live the Spiritualist philosophy.

Won't you join with us? This is love in action, healing power. Spread the world of the higher Spiritualism this Christmas. Instead of a little Santa Claus, tie a bright white pen topped with a flower on your gift package. Let it bloom forever, reminding us that, Love is the seed, Spiritualism the flower of eternal life."

Thank you,

Christmas Holds a Special Message for Spiritualists

by Herbert Ray Worth

Christmas in the modern world, leaves an impact of a magnitude that no other holiday can claim. That it has been grossly commercialized, there is no question. Yet, in spite of all this, Christmas brings its gift of illumination and enlightenment with a spiritual intensity so widespread that it is felt in all parts of the globe.

We have only to look at the origin of Christmas, the birth of the baby Jesus, to find a revelation so rich in spirit manifestation that we can only wonder how its true meaning could so long have eluded the recognition and understanding of the millions. We likewise wonder how the spokesmen for orthodoxy can remain blind and deaf to the great truths so clearly related and demonstrated, while still asking of Spiritualists, "Do you believe in Jesus? Do you believe in God? Do you believe in the Bible?"

The revelation began with an ancient prophecy of Isaiah, which foretold the birth of a Messiah. The prophet Micah pointed to the town of Bethlehem as the location for the fulfillment of this great event. We find recorded in the scriptures that as the time of Jesus' birth drew near, a number of spirit communications occurred. An angel appeared to Mary and told her of the approaching birth of a son. We also find that an angel communicated with Joseph in a dream, telling Joseph not to hesitate to take Mary as his wife.

Herbert Ray Worth

Here was demonstrated what we would today term "materialization and independent voice", as well as spirit communication in dreams.

On this first Christmas, the angels proclaimed the glad tidings. Shepherds who were tending their flocks on the surrounding hills witnessed in amazement, the gathering of the heavenly hosts, and listened in awe to the singing of the angelic choir.

The wise men who journeyed from a far country to pay homage to the baby Jesus, spoke of "his" star which they had seen in the east, the star which had moved before them to guide them to the lowly stable in Bethlehem. Certainly the "star" was a manifestation of spirit, a type of manifestation not entirely new. Centuries earlier, a pillar of fire had guided the children of Israel through the treacherous wilderness.

Before leaving Bethlehem, the wise men received a warning from spirit, not to report to Herod on their homeward journey, but to return by another way. Joseph, too, was warned of impending danger, and was told in a dream to take the mother and young child and flee to Egypt.

After Herod's death, an angel again spoke to Joseph in a dream, telling him it was safe to return to Israel.

In more recent times, in the year 1843 to be exact, a young writer named Charles Dickens penned a literary masterpiece entitled "A Christmas Carol". The beautiful story carried within it a message of prophecy, as it dealt almost entirely with the subject of spirit materialization and communication. This was five years prior to the advent of Modern Spiritualism in 1848. Even today, "A Christmas Carol" continues to grow in popularity.

As Spiritualists turn their thoughts toward the Christmas season, we each feel the radiance of the warm inner glow as our vibrations are lifted to a highter spiritual plane. Let each of us always be mindful of the glorious heritage which is ours. Let us express in word and deed, the great joy which all Spiritualists share, something which is very, very special - "Ours is a religion of continuous life, of communication with our loved ones whether in the material or spiritual dimension, and we partake of this wonderous gift lovingly and gratefully, here and now".

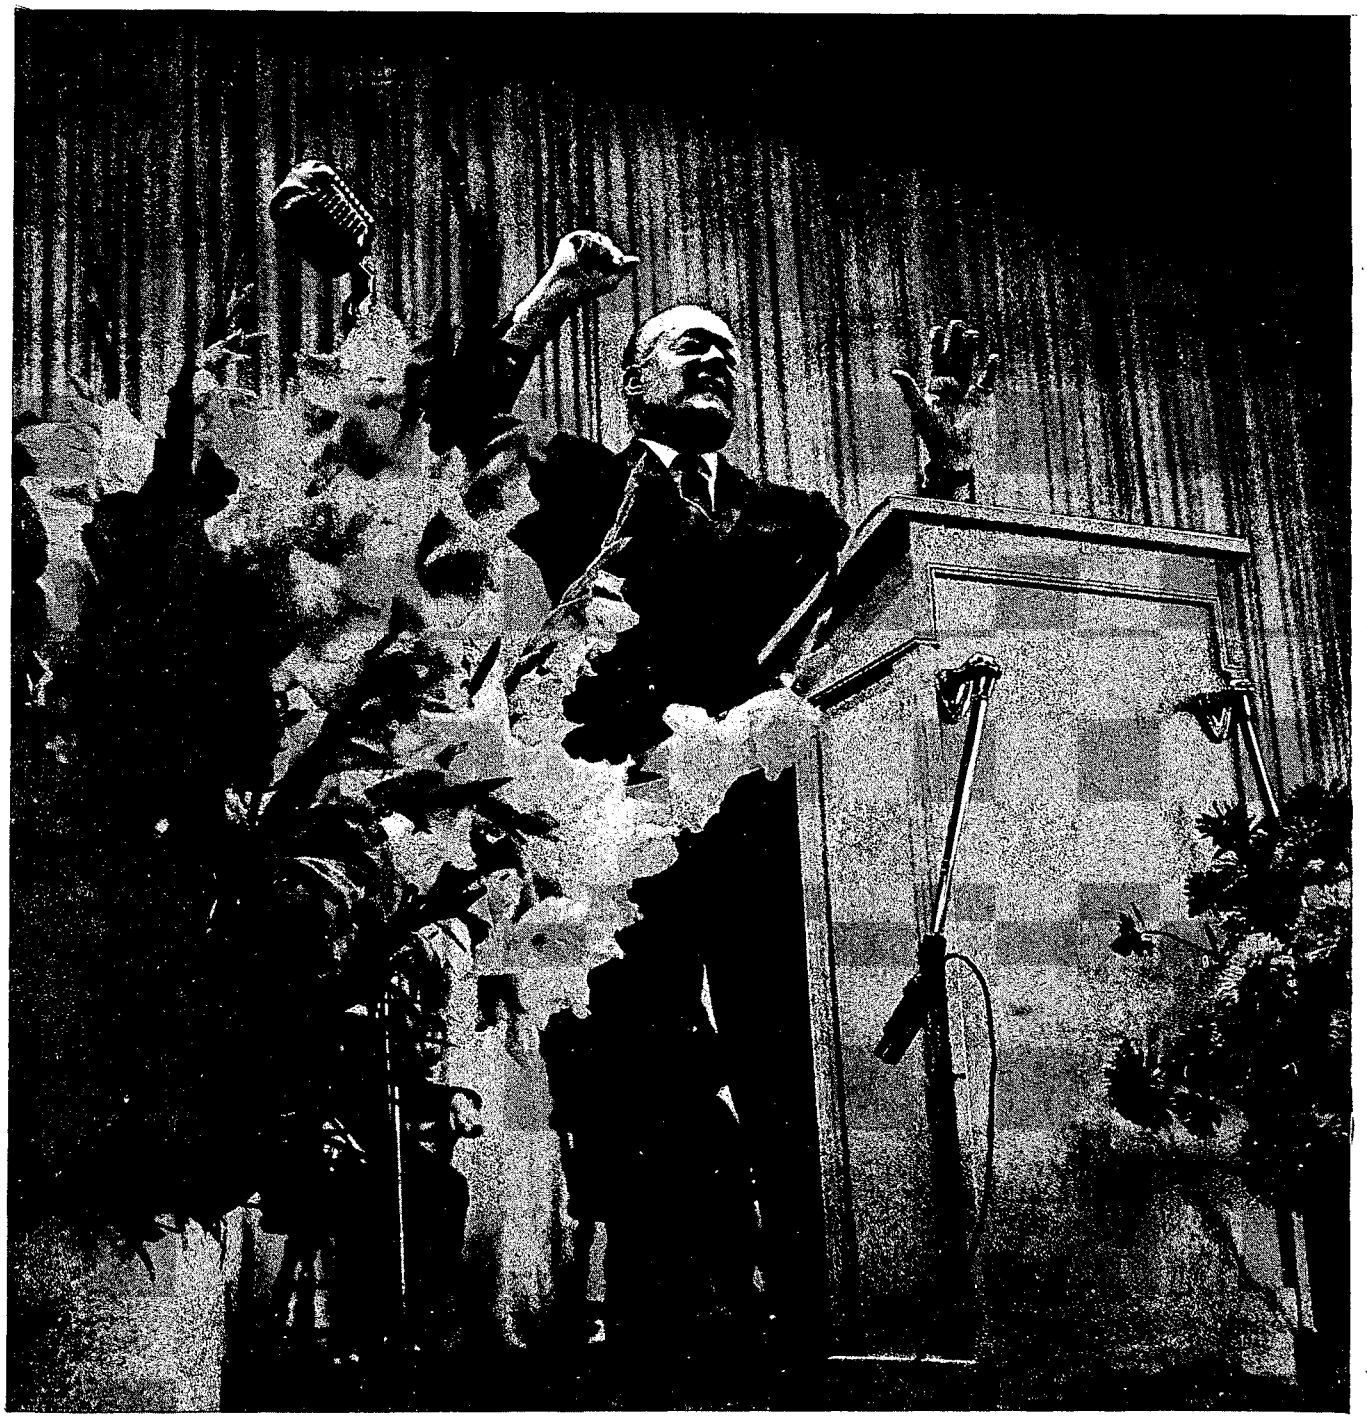

SATELLITE SEANCES:
BRINGING SPIRITUALISM TO THE MILLIONS

The time is now for a renaissance of broad public interest in Spiritualism. Modern communications technology is making this dream a reality.

On October 7, 1981, in Denver, The National Spiritualist Association of Churches unanimously agreed to join The Videography Company of Los Angeles in producing SATELLITE SEANCES, a weekly docu-dramatic series that will bring the religion, science and philosophy of Spiritualism into the homes of millions of television viewers.

At this time Spiritualists all over the world have a unique opportunity to participate in this exciting movement . . .

SATELLITE SEANCES will use a newsmagazine format. The anchorperson will be a respected individual from the field of parapsychology, science or education, whose direct, factual approach will appeal to those who are new to spiritualist ideas.

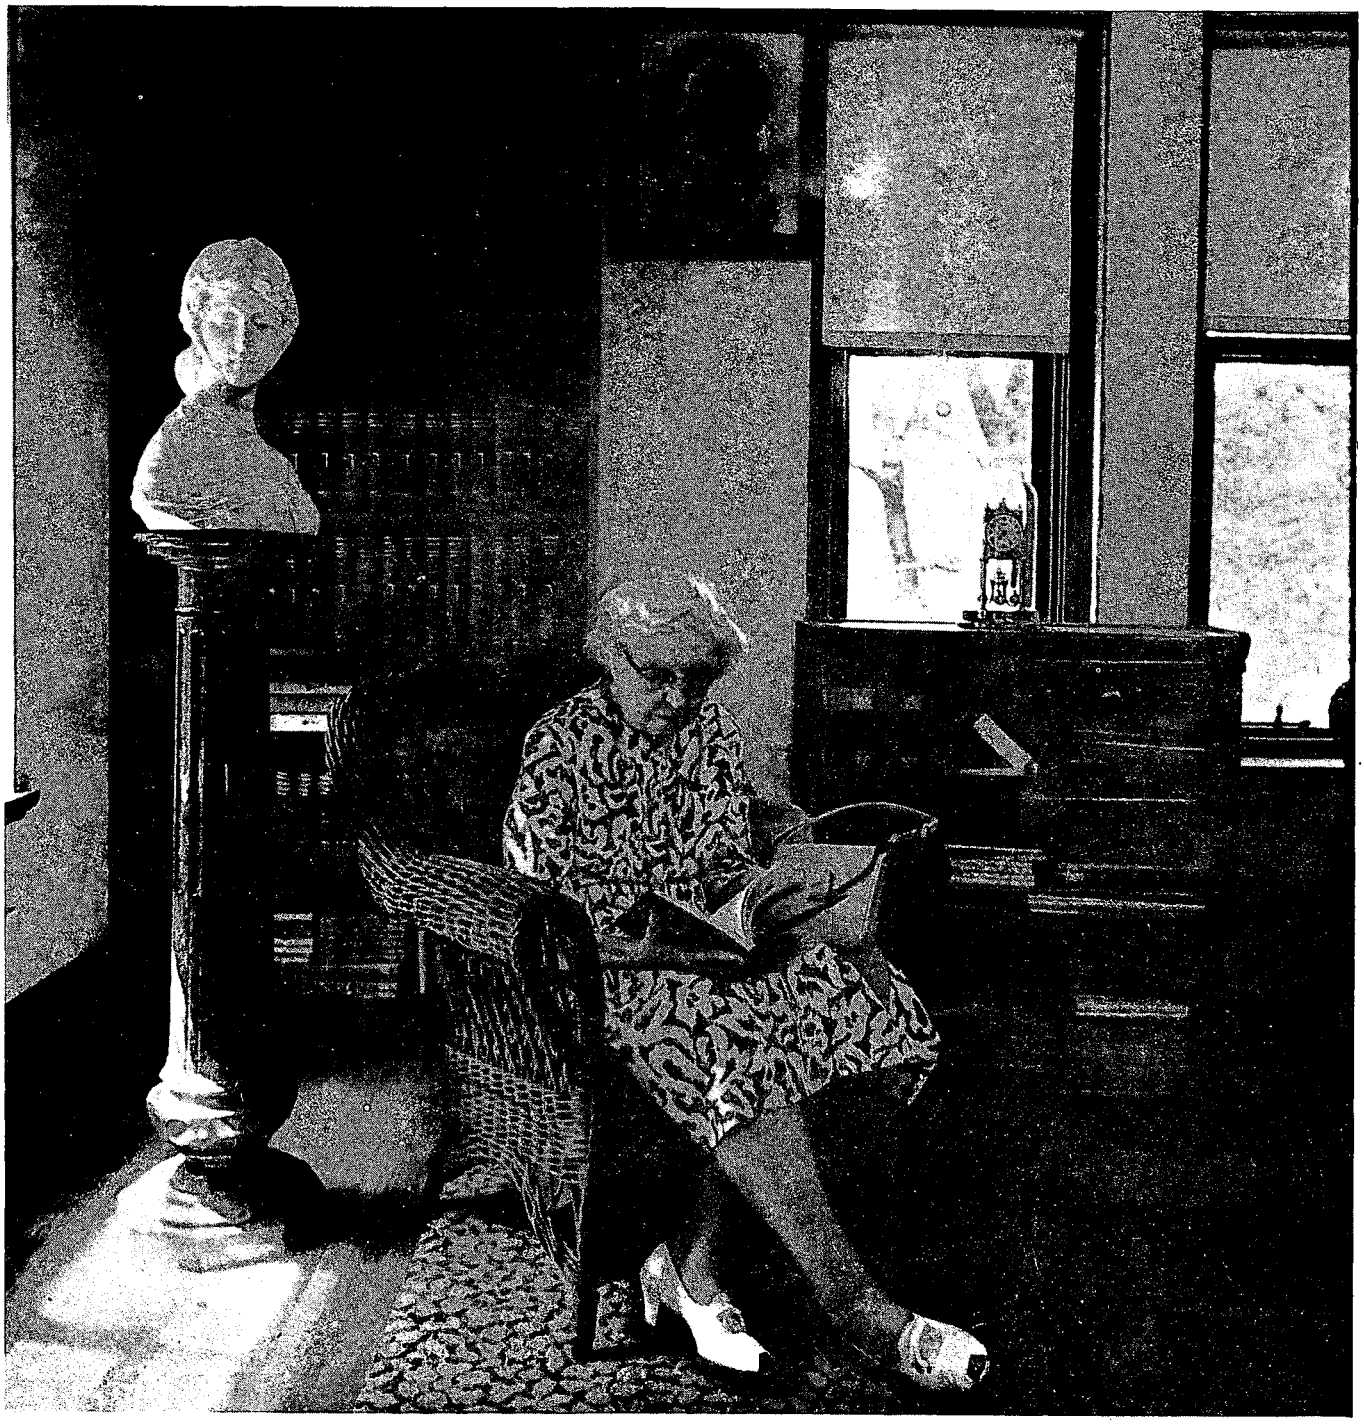

Each episode will present one or more seances, conducted by the world's most renowned and respected mediums, then transmitted by satellite from a variety of locations worldwide.

The participants in each seance will be chosen from among the patrons of SATELLITE SEANCES. These guests will be flown to the location all-expenses-paid. There they will be interviewed for the television audience before the seance begins.

The medium will be isolated from any contact with these guests prior to the seance.

The television viewer will therefore be in an excellent position to judge the effectiveness of the mediumship as the seance progresses.

After the seance, there will be a wrap-up where subjects can feel free to react to their messages.

SATELLITE SEANCES will also feature:

- Follow-ups on long term projections.
- Newsmagazine features on healing mediums, spirit artists, physical phenomena and other related subjects.
- Phone-in message and healing services.
- Reviews of noteworthy books and movies.

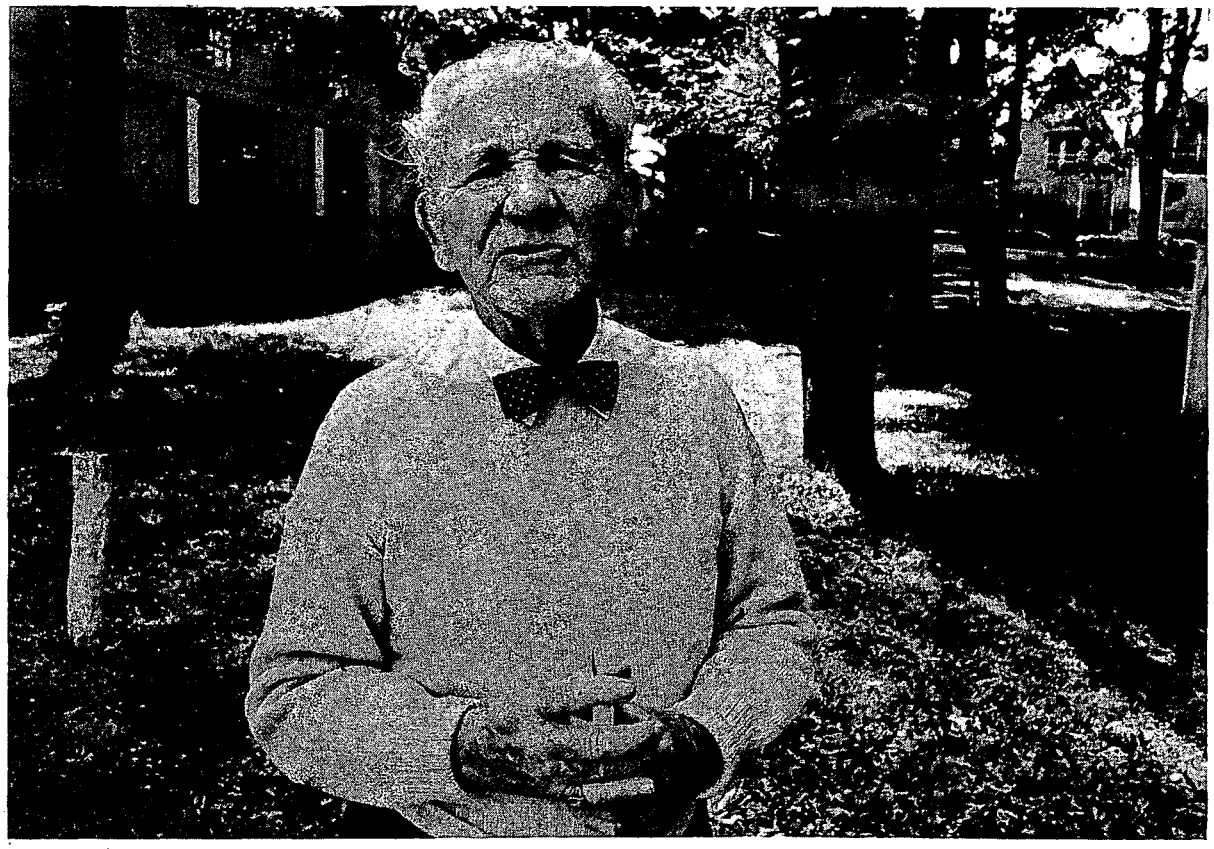

Four episodes of SATELLITE SEANCES, each one hour long, are planned as our pilot programs.

Each program will have a distinct theme, including:

1) Introduction to Spiritualism: A historical perspective.
2) Spiritualism: The Philosophy
3) Spiritualism: The Science
4) Spiritualism: The Religion

The pilots will both air twice, making a total of eight broadcasts.

When will all this begin?

The time is NOW for unification of world Spiritualism. The time is NOW for Spiritualists to step forward confidently and face the 21st century. The time is NOW for SATELLITE SEANCES.

Once these programs are on the air they can attract the support they need to continue through direct appeals to viewers. But to get them on the air, we need your help — NOW!

It's easy to become a patron of SATELLITE SEANCES. Just send the coupon below, with your tax-deductible contribution, to:

Mom's Special Gift

by Gayle Parker

It was the first Christmas after dad passed to spirit, and we were very concerned about mom. She agreed to spend the holidays with us, and it was a happy group who met her at the airport.

She only broke down once, when we gave her a golden teardrop necklace, purchased from the money dad had been saving for her Christmas gift. Her voice quavered as she said, "This is the first time I haven't had a present for him".

Late that night my husband shook me awake. "Listen", he said. I sat up in bed to hear someone singing. We tiptoed quickly to the head of the stairs. There mom sat, with only the lights of the tree flickering across her face, as she sang the songs she and dad had loved.

She looked happier the next day, and I told her how much we had enjoyed her songs. Her smile was radiant as she answered, "That was for dad. Somehow, I know that even though I can't see him, somewhere he can hear me. So, I sang all his favorite songs as my Christmas gift to him".

Now, when I think of Christmas, I think of my mother singing, and of a gift of love that reached beyond the barriers of time and space, and I feel a special inner glow, remembering.

MY CHRISTMAS PRAYER FOR YOU

Dedicated to Bessie
Barton Winger

By William Graham Turner

As I Sit by the fireside, thinking
Of all the full years of the past,
And the many events that filled them
With Memories dear that still last,

There appears to my Mind's Panorama
So many Dear Friends, tried and true,
Who have added so much to the richness,
As have also the ones we call new.

So now, as the Holiday season
Approaches, with all its gay mirth,
It's thoughts of the birth of the Christ Child,
Who came as a Teacher to earth,

That gives a True Meaning to Christmas,
And teaches us all how to live:
That Christmas means not just receiving,
But a pause in life's rush to give,

So I send out my prayer this season
That you may be blest each day
With all that you need of Courage
To meet hardships along life's way;

And that Manifold Joys and Blessings
May colour your every hour,
As our God reveals to you daily
HIS LOVE - HIS PRESENCE - HIS POWER.

Transitions

Albers, Rev. Elsie R. Koetzing, age 93, passed to spirit September 20th. She is survived by her husband William Albers and other relatives. She was born in Buda, Illinois February 22, 1888 and in 1901 became aware of her mediumship. Not until 1924 did she learn of Spiritualism but was ordained in 1937.

In addition to her active life in Clubs, she was a dedicated visitor to the Mississippi Valley Spiritualist Association Camp at Mt. Pleasant Park, Clinton, Iowa for most of 57 years. She felt that Spiritualism was a help to her and contributed to the long years in this expression of life.

Services were held in Moline, Illinois with Martha Smith officiating. Rev. Albers will be missed by many who loved her.

Herr, Mrs. Florence (Frace) of Barboursville, Virginia (for many years - Easton, Pennsylvania) - passed to higher life on September 29th at the age of 73 yrs. Attendants included Mrs. Mrs. Mary Kusz and Mr. Stanley Hessey. After the ceremony a reception was held with the traditional wedding cake and punch being served. The couple will make their home in Rochester, New York, where Mr. Skowronski is the Pastor of Plymouth Spiritualist Church. Gala Day in Burnham

On September 20th, the Puritan Spiritualist Church in Burnham, Illinois welcomed, as their guest speaker and medium, the Rev. Virginia L. Falls of Muncie, Indiana.

Rev. Fall's lecture entitled "Where Spiritualism is Going" was an inspiration to all. Her message ministry gave proof positive of the communication between the two worlds.

The beautifully decorated church was filled beyond the 120 seat capacity.

Church members were also honored to welcome Doris Copeland, secretary of the Indiana State Spiritualist Association. Laying of hands healing was demonstrated by August Schnyder of Muncie, as well as Roger Galloway of the Puritan Church.

Special thanks are extended to all who made this day very special.

I have very little interest in anything covered by the words theoretic speculations, or in self-induced conditions, in which many thousands who stand on rostrums and teach the anxious inquirers after truth, that of which they themselves know little or nothing. My motto is: Live up to your highest light. Listen to the small voice within, and obey the dictates of your conscience. Do unto others as you would be done by. Follow the golden rule. Go worship where and what your conscience, not pride, leads you, and you need not fear to meet your God..

Ann Leah Fox Underhill

A GIFT OF LOVE

What shall I give my child this year -
Something that will last and become more dear?
A train, a game, the latest fad,
Some special toy - no, these he's had.
With passing years his interest range
Is sure to grow and then will change.
The gift I give must be very fine,
And cannot be affected by time.
That which will set it apart
Is because it is sent from the heart.
I'll give him something meant for life,
Whether days be full of joy or strife.
I'll teach him that which he must know,
That respect for others must continue to grow.
Accepting responsibility is his alone.
A trait which will help him reach each milestone.
Through faith he'll reach his golden star.
Each goal can be attained whether near or far.
Through prayer to the Infinite each day,
And spirit friends to lead the way,
He's sure to follow a path that's right,
One that will lead him to the highest height.
I know I must guide with gentle touch,
The footsteps of this one I love so much.
The fabric of his character I'll mold,
And join carefully like threads of gold.
The gift I've chosen is not for just one special day.
It's a daily gift of love to help him on life's way.
As days go by and he continues to grow,
With Peaceful assurance I can look back and know,
I've given the finest gift there is.
I've helped mold the character which is his.

Endowment

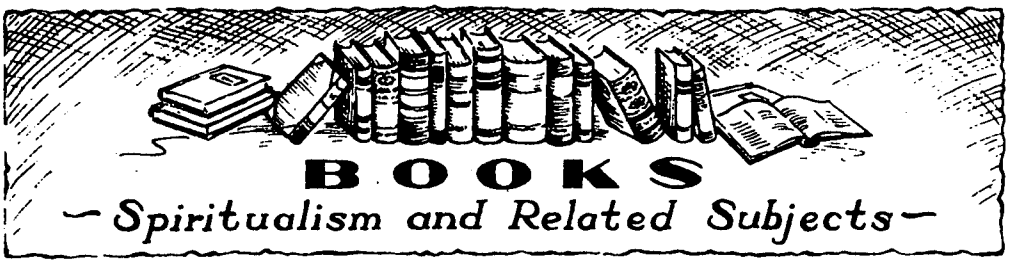

ENDOWMENT, ENDOWMENT, ENDOWMENT! Give me a break. All I hear is Endowment.

What is that? You say it is the leading tune of the hour? - and everybody is paying up to a hundred dollars for it?

Again what is that? I could get on the band wagon too for as little as twenty-five dollars, if I knew the code word was "Contributor"? Why didn't some one tell me? Here is my check to N.S.A.C. ENDOWMENT.

Robert Service, in his "SPELL OF THE YUKON" put it this way:

I wanted the gold, and I sought it;
I scrabbled and mucked like a slave.
Was it famine or scurvy - I fought it;
I hurled my youth into a grave.
I wanted the gold, and I got it;
Came out with a fortune last fall.
Yet somehow life's not what I thought it,
And somehow the gold isn't all."

Thoughts are Things

Thoughts are things on airy wings,
Swifter than carrier dove.
Each must create its kind,
They speed ore the track,
To bring you back
What'er went out from your mind.

Declaration of Principles

National Spiritualist Association of Churches

1. We believe in Infinite Intelligence.
2. We believe that the phenomena of Nature, both physical and spiritual, are the expression of Infinite Intelligence.
3. We affirm that a correct understanding of such expression and living in accordance therewith, constitute true religion.
4. We affirm that the existence and personal identity of the individual continue after the change called death.
5. We affirm that communication with the so-called dead is a fact, scientifically proven by the phenomena of Spiritualism.
6. We believe that the highest morality is contained in the Golden Rule: "Whatsoever ye would that others should do unto you do ye also unto them."
7. We affirm the moral responsibility of the individual, and that he makes his own happiness or unhappiness as he obeys or disobeys Nature's physical and spiritual laws.
8. We affirm that the doorway to reformation is never closed against any human soul here or hereafter.
9. We affirm that the precept of Prophecy contained in the Bible is a Divine attribute proven through Mediumship.
